

FINDING NEVERLAND

Scene

Michael and Jack are putting on the play their brother Peter has written. This should feel silly and a bit over the top.

MICHAEL & JACK

Surprise!

BARRIE

What's going on?

MICHAEL

We're putting on Peter's play.

JACK

We've been planning it all week.

MICHAEL

Ok, we are ready! Good evening, I am the usher. May I have your tickets please?

BARRIE

Oh. I'm sorry, I'm afraid I don't think we were given tickets.

MICHAEL

Oh no, I forgot to give them the tickets.

JACK

Give them the tickets then!

MICHAEL

(searching in his pockets) Here are your tickets.

BARRIE

Thank you.

MICHAEL

May I have your ticket please? (taking the tickets) Thank you.

JACK

(drum roll – he bangs on the floor making a drumming sound) Welcome to “The Tale of Lady Ursula.”

MICHAEL

(playing the role of Lady Ursula, being a bit over the top) Oh it's a beautiful day. Time for me, Lady Ursula, being a beautiful lady—(his make-shift dress is falling down)... Jack, my dress keeps falling down! What do I do?

JACK

Just keep going!
